

ALPAD Grants Sublicense of Nichia Basic Patents relating to YAG White LEDs and License of ALPAD Patents to DOMINANT

ALPAD Corporation (“ALPAD”) was recently granted by Nichia Corporation (“Nichia”) a sublicensable license of the Nichia-owned basic patents relating to white LEDs with YAG-based phosphors. ALPAD first granted DOMINANT Opto Technologies Sdn. Bhd. (“DOMINANT”) a sublicense of the Nichia patents.

ALPAD also granted DOMINANT a license of ALPAD-owned patents relating to YAG-based phosphors which can be applied to the white LEDs.

ALPAD globally takes appropriate and firm actions to contribute to sound development of the industry and legal compliance.
